notwithstanding that such person would otherwise be qualified to exercise such rights or assume such office pursuant to any other provisions of these Articles.

4 GENERAL MEETINGS

Annual General Meeting

- 4.1 An Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be held at least once in every calendar year and otherwise in accordance with the provisions of Section 240 of the Code.

Extraordinary General Meetings

- 4.2.1 All general meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- 4.2.2 The Council may whenever it thinks fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened by the Executive Officer on receipt of the requisition of not less than one-tenth of the Members of the Association.
- 4.2.3 Subject to the provisions of the Code relating to special resolutions and agreements for shorter notice, at least 14 days' notice (exclusive of the day on which the notice is given and exclusive of the day of the meeting) shall be given to such persons as are entitled to receive such notices from the Association. The notice shall specify the place, the date and the hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business the general nature of that business.
- 4.2.4 Any such requisition shall be signed by the requisitors and left at the Registered Office or sent by post to the Executive Officer and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitors.
- 4.2.5 Any such requisition shall specify the objects of the meeting required and the meeting shall be convened for the purpose specified in the requisition and if convened otherwise than by the Council for that purpose only.

Special Business

- 4.3 For the purpose of Article 4.2.3 all business to be transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be special business. All business that is to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall be special business with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, the report of the Council and auditors, the appointment of Councillors and any appointment of auditors.

5 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

- 5.1.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Voting Members is present either personally or by proxy.
- 5.1.2 A quorum shall be constituted by 30 persons who are Voting Members.

Failure to Achieve a Quorum

- 5.2.1 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present:
- (a) the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; and
  - (b) in any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Council may determine.
- 5.2.2 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present (being not less than 10 persons who are Voting Members) shall be a quorum. If a quorum is still not present the meeting shall be dissolved.

Chairman

- 5.3.1 The President shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Association. If the President is absent the Vice-President shall be Chairman. In the event that neither is present or if they are unwilling to act then the Members present shall appoint one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 5.3.2 The Chairman shall be responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and may make rulings and in addition to any general power to adjourn may adjourn the meeting without putting the question to the vote if such action is required to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting.

Adjournments

- 5.4.1 The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 5.4.2 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.
- 5.4.3 Subject to Article 5.4.2 it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting at General Meetings

- 5.5.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the Chairman; or
  - (b) by at least five Voting Members present in person; or
  - (c) by at least 15 Voting Members present in person or by proxy.
- 5.5.2 Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 5.5.3 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 5.5.4 If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. A poll demanded on the appointment of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.
- 5.5.5 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 5.5.6 On a show of hands every person present who is a Voting Member shall have one vote.
- 5.5.7 On a poll every Voting Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.
- 5.5.8 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting if his/her membership fees are in arrears at the commencement of the meeting.

Proxies

- 5.6.1 A member may vote in person or by proxy. The proxy need not be a Member.

- 5.6.2 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor.
- 5.6.3 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- 5.6.4 A Member shall be entitled to instruct his/her proxy in favour of or against any proposed resolutions or on the election of Councillors. Unless otherwise instructed the proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit.
- 5.6.5 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be substantially in the form produced below.

THE AUSTRALIAN ASSOCIATION OF CONSULTANT PHYSICIANS LIMITED

I, ..... of ..... being a financial Member of The Australian Association of Consultant Physicians Limited hereby appoint ..... or failing him/her ..... or failing both of them, the Chairman as my proxy to vote for me on my behalf at the *Annual / *Extraordinary General Meeting of the Association, to be held on the ..... day of ..... 20... and at any adjournment thereof.

My proxy is hereby authorised to vote *in favour / *against / *as he/she thinks fit in respect of the following resolutions: .....

Signed this ..... day of ..... 20....

- 5.6.6 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Registered Office of the Association, or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person names in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. A legible facsimile transmission copy of any such instrument will be accepted as if it were the original instrument.
- 5.6.7 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal or revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, if no intimation in writing of such death, unsoundness of mind or revocation as aforesaid has been received by the Association at the Registered Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used.

6 COUNCIL

- 6.1.1 Until otherwise determined by a special resolution passed by two-thirds of the Members the number of Councillors shall be not less than six nor more than ten and shall be elected by the Members (“Elected Councillors”).
- 6.1.2 No person shall be eligible to be appointed or to remain as a Councillor unless he/she is a Member.
- 6.1.3 All Councillors shall be appointed and shall hold office as provided by the Articles.
- 6.1.4 Notwithstanding anything in these Articles herein contained the first Council shall be the subscribers whose appointment shall expire at the close of the first Annual General Meeting.

Meeting of the Association

- 6.1.5 The Elected Councillors shall hold office for a term of three years (save as is hereinafter provided) and shall take office immediately following the Annual General Meeting at which they are declared elected and shall go out of office at the end of the third Annual General Meeting after the Annual General Meeting at which they were declared elected.

- 6.1.6 No Member shall be elected to the Council until he/she has indicated that he/she is desirous of becoming a Member of the Council. This desire shall be expressed in writing.
- 6.1.7 If the number of nominations for membership of the Council shall be less than the number of vacancies upon the Council then a casual vacancy or casual vacancies as the case may be shall be deemed to have arisen in relation thereto.
- 6.1.8 Any casual vacancy among Elected Members of the Council shall be filled by the Council from among the Members provided always that any member of the Council so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting but shall be eligible for re-election at such meeting.
- 6.1.9 Candidates for election as Elected Councillors shall first be nominated in accordance with the following procedure. The Council not later than two months prior to the holding of an Annual General Meeting at which an Elected Councillor is to be elected shall by a notice to Members invite Members to nominate for consideration as potential candidates for election as an Elected Councillor. Any nomination must be made in accordance with Article 6.2.2.
- 6.1.10 (a) The number of Elected Councillors resident in any one state or territory of Australia must not exceed four.
(b) There shall be at least one Elected Councillor who is an Adult Medicine Consultant Physician, one who is a Consultant Paediatrician and one who is a Fellow of a Faculty or Chapter or Specialty Society of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians.
- 6.1.11 In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Councillor becomes vacant by virtue of the Code, the office of a Councillor shall be vacated:
- (a) if he/she becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
- (b) if he/she absents himself/herself from three consecutive Council meeting without special leave of absence from the Council and the Council resolves that his/her office be vacated;
- (c) if his/her office be declared vacant by an ordinary resolution of two-thirds of the Members;
- (d) if he/she ceases to be a Member; or
- (e) if he/she resigns his/her office by notice in writing to the Association.
- 6.1.12 (a) Subject to the Articles and the Code, Councillors appointed at an Annual General Meeting shall hold office for three years.
(b) A Councillor whose period in office is to expire at the close of an Annual General Meeting is eligible for re-appointment at that meeting.

Appointment of Councillors by Members

- 6.2.1 The appointment of Elected Councillors by the Members shall be by election as provided in the Articles. For the purposes of conducting all elections of Elected Councillors the Executive Officer shall be the Returning Officer unless another Member is appointed to undertake this task by the Council.
- 6.2.2 No person (including a retiring Councillor) shall be eligible for election as a Councillor by the Members unless notice of his/her nomination has been given to the Executive Officer:
- (a) in the case of the election to be held at each Annual General Meeting, on or before 1 September in any year or such later time as the Council may permit in its absolute discretion; or
- (b) in any other case, at least 21 days prior to the meeting at which the election is to be held or such shorter period as the meeting otherwise permits.

A nomination notice shall be signed by the nominator, the seconder and the nominee who shall all be financial Members. The nomination notice shall be substantially in the following form:

Signature of Candidate

I am and present myself as a ..... (insert one of Adult Medicine Physician, Consultant Paediatrician, or Fellow of a Faculty or a Chapter or a Specialty Society of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians).

Dated this ..... day of ..... 20...

6.2.3 If the number of Members nominated for election to the Council does not exceed the number of vacancies on the Council to be filled, the Members so nominated shall, at the meeting concerned, be declared elected as Elected Councillors.

6.2.4 If the number of Members nominated for election to the Council exceeds the number of vacancies on the Council to be filled, an election shall be conducted by secret ballot in the following manner:

- (i) Ballot papers shall be prepared setting out the names of the candidates for the Council and providing for voters to cast their votes by placing a mark opposite the names of the candidates for whom they desire to vote.
- (ii) The order in which candidates appear on the ballot papers shall be determined by lot drawn by the Returning Officer.
- (iii) The Executive Officer shall enclose with the notice convening the general meeting at which an election of Councillors is to take place a proxy form which will enable a Member appointing a proxy to direct the voting of the proxy on the election. Such proxy form shall set out the names of the candidates in the same sequence as is on the ballot papers.
- (iv) The Executive Officer shall circulate brief (of no more than 50 words) biographical information on each candidate for election to the Council where such information is provided to the Secretary with the nomination form and the Returning Officer is satisfied that the information is not false or misleading.
- (v) At the meeting at which the election is to take place, each Voting Member shall be handed one ballot paper for his/her own use and, except where (vi) applies, one ballot paper for each Member he/she represents.
- (vi) A Member may direct his/her proxy as to how he/she is to vote on an election of Councillors by completing the relevant section of the proxy form so as to indicate the one or more candidates for whom he/she desires to vote. Where completed in this - manner the proxy form shall for the purposes of the Articles be treated as if it was a ballot paper tendered by the Voting Member on behalf of the Member concerned.

- (vii) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the issuing of ballot papers to Voting Members present at the meeting, the receipt of completed ballot papers, the verification of proxy votes, the counting of all votes validly cast and all other matters incidental to the proper conduct of the election.
  - (viii) The Council shall appoint two Members to act as scrutineers. The scrutineers shall be responsible for overseeing the conduct of the election and shall be entitled to be present to witness all actions taken by the Returning Officer or his/her assistants and shall have access to all proxy forms, ballot papers and other documents necessary to fulfil these responsibilities.
  - (ix) If any question arises as to the validity of any vote it shall be determined by the Returning Officers and his/her decision thereon shall be final.
  - (x) The Returning Officer shall report the result of the ballot to the Chairman of the meeting who shall declare the result. When declaring the result the Chairman shall specify the number of terms for which each of the Councillors has been appointed in accordance with the Articles and those particulars shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
  - (xi) To be valid votes shall not be cast for more than the number of positions to be filled by the election.
  - (xii) A vote shall not be invalid if the Member has not cast a vote for the full number of the positions to be filled by the election.
  - (xiii) Where any candidate if elected would cause there to be a non-compliance with Article 6.1.10 (a) then only the candidates up to the number permitted under that clause who have achieved the most number of votes shall be elected and that candidate shall be eliminated. Where the result of an election would result in a candidate not being elected but whose election is necessary to comply with Article 6.1.10 (b) then that candidate (but if more than one the one achieving the highest number of votes) shall be deemed to have achieved sufficient votes to be elected and the candidate otherwise achieving the least higher number of votes shall be eliminated.

7 OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

- 7.1 Immediately after the Annual General Meeting each year commencing with the first Annual General Meeting, the Council shall meet and elect a President, a Vice-President and a Treasurer (in accordance with Article 14.1) from amongst the Councillors. The President must be an Adult Medicine Consultant Physician who is a Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians.
- 7.2 The President shall hold office for no more than three consecutive annual terms unless in the view of Council there are particular circumstances to warrant the President holding office for one additional annual term.
- 7.3 The President, Vice-President and Treasurer shall vacate their respective offices if they cease to be Councillors or if they are removed from such offices by a resolution of the Council provided that such a resolution is supported by two-thirds of the members of Council.
- 7.4 The Council may appoint any Councillor to fill any casual vacancy in the office of President or of Vice-President or of Treasurer and any Councillor so appointed shall be eligible for re-appointment to the same office. The period between an appointment to fill a casual vacancy and the first meeting of the Council following the next succeeding Annual General Meeting shall not be taken into consideration for the purposes of Article 7.2.

8 POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

- 8.1.1 The management and control of the business and affairs of the Association shall, subject to the Memorandum and the Articles, be vested in the Council. In addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon the Council by the Articles, it may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as are within the scope of the Memorandum and are not hereby or by statute or by the Memorandum expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Members in general meeting. No variation to the Memorandum or the Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if such variation had not been made.
